Cuban Choir Wins Award in Italy

PEDRO DE LA HOZ

The Schola Cantorum Coralina choir, directed by professor Alina Orra brought prestige to the Cuban choir movement by winning last weeker Arezzo Grand Prize 2006, one of the six most important European aw music.

Choir groups from 25 countries competed in Italy for the award.

The Cubans stood out for their expressive delivery and precise timbre a repertory that included the works of Cuban composers Roberto Vale Lopez Gavilan.
